

WINNING KICK: R. Seshadri, convenor (sports) for the Advertising Club, presenting the cup to P. Rajesh, captain of Antares Publishing Services.

Antares bags football trophy

Antares Publishing Services emerged victorious in the inaugural Adclub football tournament. It was organised by the Advertising Club in association with Indian Oil Corporation recently at the YMCA ground.

In the final, which went to extra time, Antares defeated Sutherland Global Solutions 2-1. The match winner came in the third minute of extra time from Don Vinod.

Earlier Antares had beaten Public Ambience Advertising P Ltd 7-0 in one semi-final while Sutherland accounted for Cedilla Communications with a 10-0 verdict.

The two-day tournament brought together 12 teams and enthusiasm marked each match. R. Seshadri, Convenor (sports) for the Advertising Club Madras gave away the trophy to the winner.

Also present on the occasion were P. Subramanian, Secretary, B.S. Raj Narain, Joint Secretary and P. C. Amarnath, Committee member of the Club.